

2010 Conference Personal Grant Application

Funding for personal grants to attend the 13th NOAH Conference will be determined by money raised in early 2010. There is no guarantee that personal grant money will be available. However NOAH is reasonably sure that a limited amount of money will be available. Those interested in applying for a personal grant should complete this application and return it and all supporting materials to NOAH no later than March 15, 2010. Applicants will be notified on or about April 23, 2010.

NOAH members, those who live nearest to the conference, and those who have never attended a conference before will receive priority for financial assistance. To be considered, applications must disclose income level and include a detailed budget of expenses and what you can pay, along with documentation of application for other funding sources. To obtain a copy of the Sources of Funding Information Kit for the 2010 Conference or a budget form*, please call NOAH at 800-473-2310 or visit www.albinism.org.
